The City Democratic Executive Commit tee Desires Harmony, but Not on the Dictatorial Terms Announced by the Citizens' Committee.

The Primary Election and the Conven tion to be Held on the Days Heretofore Announced by the City Democratic Executive Committee.

At three o clock yesterday afternoon the Democratic and Conservative city committee appointed at the late mass meeting held at he city hall, for the purpose of conducting the approaching municipal campaign, met at the committee room in the Vincent block, on the corner of Second and East Court streets.

Messrs. R. F. Looney, chairman; J. J. DuBose, secretary; W. H. Rhea, J. A. Taylor,
S. W. Green, A. W. Newsom, John M.
Rourke, Charles Borner and J. J. Duffy were present—two members of the committee being absent—Messrs. J. J. Busby and M. Burke, who had resigned. Colonel Looney, chairman, called the com mittee to order. It was immediately an-nounced that a committee from a citizens' meeting, held on Thursday afternoon at the office of Messrs. Gantt, Patterson & Lowe, desired to meet with the executive committee.

and J. A. Forrest, made their appearance and were invited to take seats. Captain R. C. Williamson, chairman and spokesman of the citizens' committee, arose and stated that "the object of their visit was and stated that "the object of their visit was to secure a conference to settle differences which seemed to have sprung up in the Deu ocratic party. They were not there to represent Radicals or Independents; they represented a Democratic minority, probably, but yet a respectable minority. Faults had been found with the action of the City hall mass-meeting, and they wanted to har-monize. The only way to insure success is a fighting under the Democratic banner." Colonel Looney, chairman of the executive committee, replied that he was glad to see the gentlemen present, and that when the article or letter purporting to come from the citizens' meeting, as published in the papers of that morning was withdrawn the com-

If agreeab to the members of my committee, we wil Colonel Jesse Forrest-There is nothing t withdraw; no proposition as to that paper has Colonel DuBose-We would like to hear but we have no proposition to make.

Colonel Forest—I am here for peace in the Democratic party. We are here to meet and confer. All that we ask is fair dealing. I have heard that this executive committee was willing to divide judges and clerks of election. We want equal numbers on the executive committee, and we want a postponement of all that the committee has done. I me here to heal wounds, not to create dis Captain J. A. Taylor, of the executive committee, said he had his individual preference for mayor, but he was a member of the executive committee for the good of the party ecutive committee for the good of the party. He was in favor of giving every Democratic candidate for mayor a fair show, and would support the nominee of the Democratic convention. The executive committee intended to select the various judges and clerks for the primary election, each member of the committee to select the judges and clerks in his respective ward. He felt that the committee represented the Democratic party. He could not see how they could resign and give way to other men or enlarge the comgive way to other men, or enlarge the com-mittee, or invite to their conference the citi-zens' committee, or the friends of any partic-

Mr. W. N. Brown-Then our mission i committee)—I came here in the interest of harmony for the Democratic party. What has been already said has not produced any harmony. Captain Williamson and Colonel Forrest told what we wanted. You have to determine whether or not you are disposed to grant that. The Democratic party in Mem-phis is disaffected at present, and in consequence, something must be done to heal this over. It would be wise if the executive committee would agree to heal this breach. We desire a representation on the executive committee, and that the time selected for holding the primary election and the convention be postponed. We are a unit upon these propositions

In about half an hour the citizens' com-mittee was notified by Colonel DuBose, secretary of the executive committee, that the propositions made were rejected.

The citizens' committee requested to called into the executive committee room which request was granted. Captain R. C. Several gentlemen, among others Captain R. C. Williamson, indorsed this assertion, and regretted that the "letter" had not been so presented.

December I. 1877. because of the small number of citizens present, and the hasty action of those present, and ask that you join with us, together with all good citizens in the party, in calling a mass-meeting of our citizens at the Greenlaw Operahouse, on the night of December—, 1877. at half-past seven o'clock, for the purpose of organizing the party for the coming city campaign, in a manner that will meet with the approval and sanction of the whole party. And that for this purpose you no longer exercise the functions of a commit tee, unless indorsed by said mass-meeting but submit your claims to act as a committee to that mass-meeting. Yours respectfully,

R. C. WILLIAMSON,

R. C. WILLIAMSON, B. P. ANDERSON, D. T. PORTER, C. G. FISHER, W. N. BROWN, J. A. FORREST, The presentation of this paper, and the very marked personal slight but upon the committee by lis terms, would justify its return without the slightest notice. You are froward to ignore and treat with the utmost disrespect the citizens who convened December 1-t, in accordance with the request of the previous executive committee, to whom the Democratic and Conservative party of the city had heretofore intrusted its fortunes—a committee that commanded the confidence of the whole people, and especially of the party. Even if we did not hold our appointment from this mass-meeting, we would, as individuals, be disinclined to countenance the discourt-sy your appeal to us manifestly implies for an assemblage of people qu'te as much interested in clip affairs as you can represent, and who are entitled to as much consideration as any body of citizens you can possibly speak for. But having consented to act for the parry on the authorization of this meeting, we find no excuse that warrants us in submitting to the dictatorial spirit of your paper, or in failing to protest against the reprehension it casts on the mass-meeting of the first instant. We will, however, waive these obnexious features of the proceedings from which your note emanates, so far as to assign reasons for our refusal to comply with your proposition.

First—The mass-meeting from which we draw our reasons for our refusal to comply with your proposition.

First—The mass-meeting from which we draw our authority to a t for the Democratic and Conservative party was assembled in obedience to a legitimate call of a former committee and in accordance with the recognized usages of party organization.
Second—Citizens who faile, to attend that meeting have no right to ask a revision of its proceedings. If dissatished, there is but one remedy for them, and that is to act outside of the party. To recognize the right of a few members of the party,
after refusing or neglecting to attend its regularly, called meetings, to demand other and successive mass-conventions, would introduce constant disor der. There would be no terminating point in party organization. The very meeting you propose to call might have its action set aside on precisely the same ground now urged by you for vacating the results of the meeting from which we hold our appointment.
This difficulty must strike the most ordinary apprehension.

Thitd—We deny that "hasty action" characterized will be our effort, to secure a fair representation of popular opinion to the nominating convention, which it may be our duty to call and organize. It is not only our desire, but our duty, to confer with 1-ading Democrats of the city, and especially with the various friends of the aspirants, so as to direct our 1s bors with a view of harmonizing all factions and interests. When we fall to do this, it will be time enough for you to offer the imputations contained in your offensive request.

J. J. DUBOSE, Secretary.
